

1960s a Decade of Change
After School Program for 3rd through 6th Grade Students

The 1960s were a decade of extremes, of transformational change and bizarre contrasts: flower children and assassins, idealism and alienation, rebellion and backlash. For many in the massive post-World War II baby boom generation, it was both the best of times and the worst of times. Fifty years later, this era's legacy remains a permanent part of our political and cultural lives. The sessions will be held on Mondays from 4:00 to 5:30 PM. Students can register for one or all of the sessions. There is no fee for the program but pre-registration is requested. Students may ride Bus #27 from school to the Wray Museum, and they need to be picked up by a responsible adult.
