The Wray Museum invites you to attend an exploratory meeting for the formation of a Northeastern Colorado Living History Group:

Wednesday, June 13, 2018 at 7:00 pm at the Wray Museum

As history buffs, we are fascinated with yesterday's artifacts and the stories that go with them. We also believe that preserving these historical treasures brings the past into a sharper focus for all of us. Bring a friend and join us for enjoyable evening conversing with people who share the same passion for history.
